

Dear tzachi,

I wanted to take a moment to thank you. You're pretty wise so i know that you know all of this but I'll still say it - i thank you for being you. I thank you for guiding me and being there for me like no one ever has. I thank the fact that we crossed paths, im extremely lucky that we did. without you id most likely, if not certainly, be lost, wouldn't know where to turn or what to do, i wouldn't know many of my strengths or who i am, I'd be suffering, let alone even want to live. U saved me. i know u like to say that i was the one who did the work and i did, but u were the 'mentor' that i never had and desperately needed and without you, nothing would have come into fruition. i thank you. a thank you seems like it might not cover the magnitude of what u mean to my life and i know all you want in return is for me to be me to the fullest and to succeed and i hope to/will do that but i believe that a thank you is in place. So thank you tzachi. Thank you for being you and thank you for what you've done for and with me.

Sincerely,

Michael
